What better way to connect online with others in the church than Facebook?

Are you on Facebook too?

myDBCLife is a dynamic two-way communication tool that allows you to:

- Find out about events, register, and pay for them online.
- Find volunteer positions available in the church. By reviewing the attributes for each position, you can search for available positions based on your skills, passion, experience, qualifications, or other attributes.
- Find a small group or ministry to join, go online, search for the groups that are of interest to you, get information about groups, and even request to join while online.
- Access personalized lists of activities, small group members, online maps, e-mails, birthdays, anniversary dates, and much more.
- View your detailed contributions and receive your official tax statement online.
- View selected church calendars
- Pastors can look up prayer requests and pastoral care needs and schedule visits and update them as

3. On the Personal Preferences page, check those items of personal information you wish other members to view in individual and family directories. In the example below, this user allows everyone to see everything. NOTE: To view an online directory in Access ACS, a user must have appropriate rights, so not everyone can see everything that is in the database.

FAMILY PRIVACY PREFERENCES

This section controls what information is made available in directory form to all member users of myDBC Life.

- Include My Family in the Family Directory — Select to include your family directories. If you select this option, you can customize your preferences with the following options:
 - Allow other members to view my address — Select to display your address in family directories.
 - Allow other members to view my phone number — Select to display your phone number in family directories.
 - Allow other members to view our photo — Select to display your family photograph in family directories. If a family photograph is not available, it does not display.

INDIVIDUAL PRIVACY PREFERENCES

As myDBC Life use expands, you will be able to utilize it to obtain contact lists for the small groups and ministry volunteer activities in which you participate. This section allows you to control what information is made available to your group as a whole.

- Allow other members to view my address in group directories — Select to display your address in individual directories.
- Allow other members to view my e-mail address in group directories — Select to display your e-mail address in individual directories.

- Allow other members to view my phone number in group directories — Select to display your phone number in individual directories.
- Allow other members to view my photo in group directories — Select to display your picture in individual directories.

VIEWING PREFERENCES

Do not display photos when viewing individual or family information — Select to prevent images from displaying in family and individual directories. This option is recommended for users with low-speed Internet connections such as dial-up.
